

MEMORANDUM ENDORSEMENT

United States v. Darius Monroe
18 CR 585-5 (VB)

In the attached letter, defendant asks that the Court appoint him a lawyer to “see if [he is] eligible for Amendment 782 or ‘drugs minus two.’”

The application is DENIED.

Amendment 782 (promulgated by the United States Sentencing Commission), which went into effect on November 1, 2014, lowered the base offense levels for most drug offenses by two levels. The Sentencing Commission also adopted an amendment to Section 1B1.10 of the Sentencing Guidelines which authorized, effective November 1, 2014, retroactive application of Amendment 782. In other words, the amendment applied to offenses committed both before and after November 1, 2014.

Because defendant committed his offense after November 1, 2014, he has already received the benefit of the lower sentencing ranges for drug offenses reflected in the Amendment 782. Accordingly, defendant is not eligible for a further two-level reduction.
